

Plymouth confirmed as host city for British Art Show 7

Plymouth's cultural organisations are celebrating following the official announcement by London's Hayward Gallery that the city has been selected as one of the four locations for their prestigious touring exhibition, British Art Show 7.

Plymouth will be the fourth and final destination on the exhibition's tour, with works by 39 selected artists on display at a number of venues including Plymouth City Museum and Art Gallery; Peninsula Arts Gallery, University of Plymouth; Plymouth Arts Centre and Plymouth College of Art.

Members of PADAN are invited to meet Oliver Flexman of Plymouth Visual Arts Consortium to discuss disability access to Plymouth City Museum and Art Gallery; Peninsula Arts Gallery, University of Plymouth; Plymouth Arts Centre and Plymouth College of Art, where the British Arts Show 7 will be housed.

If you are interested in offering your ideas and suggestions for disability access to Oliver please come to the meeting on

Wednesday 30 June
